Medallion Signature Guarantee required for:

- For a New York Life Investments account that has had an item of correspondence sent to a shareholder's address of record returned to us as undeliverable and subsequently a second piece of correspondence, sent within one month to the same address, returned.

The signature(s) must be Medallion Signature Guaranteed by an eligible guarantor institution as defined under the Securities Exchange Act to include generally: a bank, broker dealer, municipal securities dealer or broker, credit union, national securities exchange, registered securities association, clearing agency, or savings association. A notary public is not acceptable.

Eligible guarantor institutions provide Medallion Signature Guarantees that are covered by surety bonds in various amounts. It is your responsibility to ensure the Medallion Signature Guarantee that you acquire is sufficient to cover the total value of your transaction(s). If the surety bond amount is not sufficient to cover the requested transaction(s), the Medallion Signature Guarantee will be rejected.

Place Medallion Signature Guarantee(s) in the space below.
